SB Civil Writ. Petition No.2646/2003

Date of Order: 26th July, 2006.

PRESENT

HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE BHAGWATI PRASAD

Mr.Vijay Bishnoi for the petitioner/s.
Mr.G.R.Punia for the respondent/s.
Mrs.R.R.Kanwar, Addl.G.A.

Heard.

The objection of the learned counsel for the petitioner is that it was wrongly stated in the order that it was the Gram Panchayat alone who will discharge the functions for the development of the Gramdani Villages. In a Gramdani Village the Village Body can also do it. The argument is impregnated with the thought that in the instant scenario of law it is not only the Gram Panchayat but the Gram Sabha can also do it.

In the instant case if the State Government considers it proper that it is the Gram Panchayat alone which can do it then it can pass an order to that effect. It is not to be stated that it is only the Gram Panchayat , instead it will be stated that it will be done by the Gram Panchayat. With this modification the State Government may pass an order notwithstanding the earlier orders passed. The writ petition is accordingly disposed off.
